

Emily,

Today, when you pay for shipping, you can actually save lives. Clinics around the world are in desperate need of medical supplies and need your help!

Instead of a package arriving on your doorstep this Cyber Monday, when you give today we'll ship out boxes of supplies from our warehouse. Your gift today sends clinics the supplies they need to care for people who are hurt, sick, or delivering babies.

As an added bonus, your gift DOUBLES in value because Giving Tuesday is tomorrow! Thanks to a special matching gift, all gifts given before midnight tomorrow will be matched dollar-for-dollar until we reach $65,000.

Will you give today to ship medical supplies where they're needed most?

Double My Gift

All you have to do is pay for shipping to send these life-saving medical supplies to people who really need them. But your gift goes farther than that, too. Today your gift will help:

- Provide prenatal and safe delivery care for a pregnant woman.
- Greet a refugee with love and a health checkup after they've made a long and treacherous journey to safety.
- Send essential medical care to help a child recover from malnutrition or malaria.
- And so much more!

Now's the time to pay for shipping! Thank you for being a compassionate champion of health around the world.
